Abstract - Presentations:

Over seventy research projects of the graduate students of UConn's Materials Science and Engineering Program pass through extensive peer and faculty review with the best competing to be the three selected for presentation to the Hartford Chapter.

Kumar Yadav, third place Xuefei Wan, and ASM Hartford Chapter Chair Dr. Sam Christy

Student Night on May 13, 2008 featured presentations by three graduate students of Material Science Engineering at the University of Connecticut in Mansfield, CT. The students are members of the UConn Student Materials Advantage Chapter. The students highlighted aspects of their research on various materials. Shown in the photo, from the left, are Thomas Sadowski, Jacquelyn McGuinness Garofano (whose presentation was judged as the best), Sam Christy (Hartford Chapter Chairman), Fei Peng and Rainer Hebert (Faculty Advisor of the UConn Materials Advantage Chapter).

At Student Night on April 14, 2009, ASM Hartford Chapter members heard three research presentations from University of Connecticut Material Science and Engineering Graduate students. From Left to right are UConn Material Advantage Chapter advisor Dr. Rainer Hebert, first place Arif Mubarak, second place Satyesh
